Sung by MISS ELSIE BAKER

THE LAST PARTING

Song

The Words and Music

by

ELEANOR M. DAVIS

PRICE 60 CENTS

DAVIS STUDIO PUBLISHERS
318 NORTH 7TH ST.
HANNIBAL, MISSOURI.

To the memory of Susan R. Carleton.

THE LAST PARTING

Words and Music by

ELEANOR M. DAVIS.

Copyright MCMXVI by Eleanor M. Davis.

p

In the soft twi-light, still and deep The

p shim-mer-ing lights flit and dwell;

sustained

Si - lent-ly breath-ing of fare-well

sustained

p

Shad-ows of eve-ning slow-ly creep. O, sad and lone-ly is my

pp

heart, Drear - y the way that I must go;

Can there be great-er grief, to know That we who love so soon must part? That you must stay....that I must go. O, poco accel. With feeling

poco accel.

love, through all the length of years I shall not share your joy or tears A -

Tenderly

- way from you, I shall not know.

rit.

rit.

mp
a tempo

p
For, moun - tain mist and veil of
p Impressively
rain; The fra - grant eve, the dusk of day; Love;

molto rit.
Life it-self shall pass a - way Be - fore we two, we two may
molto rit.
Ped.
Ped.
meet a - gain.
8va
pp
rit. al fine
Ped.
Ped.